Recently the Hotline at Opportunities for Life received a call from a woman who had previously sought our help. She was calling to tell us of an experience she had after her last conversation with our telephone volunteer.

The caller stated, that in their last conversation, our Opportunities for Life volunteer had ended their rather lengthy conversation saying that she would put the callers trials "in the hands of God". It was at the end of this conversation that the caller felt the urge to take a drive someplace in an effort to clear her head -- at this point, she was a bit less sure that her only alternative was an abortion.

Our caller proceeded with her plans to take a drive somewhere - anywhere. Randomly, she picked a place to park and spend some time, just thinking. After stopping the car, she looked up, she stated, and remembers seeing this billboard proclaiming, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." It was at this precise moment that an indescribable sensation of peace and serenity washed over her entire being, she still recalls in amazement. And then, she stated, she knew that there was no longer a decision to be made concerning her unborn baby.
